

RSS Oral History Project

Release and Consent Form 2012

The RSS Oral History Project is a collective effort to capture the memories, recollections, and insights of members of the Rural Sociological Society. Recordings and transcripts resulting from interviews will become part of the Rural Sociological Society's archives located at the University of Missouri and managed by the State Historical Society of Missouri. Typical uses may include scholarly and other publications, conference presentations, educational purposes, audio/visual presentations, and websites.

Your consent to participate in this project is entirely voluntary.

We, the undersigned, have read the above. The interviewer affirms that she/he has explained the nature and purpose of this oral history project. The interviewee affirms that she/he has consented to the interview. The interviewer and interviewee hereby give, grant and assign all rights, title and interest, including copyright, of whatever kind from this information and interview to the Rural Sociological Archives at the University of Missouri managed by the State Historical Society of Missouri with the following restrictions:

- _____ No restrictions
- _____ The entire interview shall be closed to researchers until the following date: _____
- _____ Researchers must obtain the interviewee's permission to read, listen to, or quote from the interview.
